

Bill Gates Caught Carpet Bombing Millions of Americans With Lab-Made 'Frankenstein' Rabies Virus

Fact checked by The People's Voice Community

They told us it was all just conspiracy theories. Chemtrails — a hoax. Forced vaccination — paranoia. Government experiments on civilians — impossible. That's what they said... until the evidence started falling from the sky.

Because right now, as you are watching this, the U.S. government — through the USDA — is quietly spraying a live virus over American soil. A virus built in a biolab. A virus they call a “vaccine.”

They say it’s for rabies control. But this isn’t the rabies you think you know. It’s a genetically engineered hybrid — part human, part animal — designed to spread in ways nature never intended.

And according to a virologist who worked on the program, the Gates Foundation’s money kept the questions quiet... and the planes flying. No public consent. No media coverage. Just the hum of engines at dawn — dropping recombinant virus over forests, rivers, and suburbs.

Tonight, we expose the real agenda behind the spraying — a silent experiment in depopulation and mass compliance, unfolding right above our heads.

Today's video is brought to you by vp.net – the only VPN I trust to protect my privacy from the deep state. VP.net is built to 100% block deep state actors from spying on you – their military grade hardware is impenetrable. Signing up to them helps to keep my show on the air. Please visit VP.net/tpv to find out more.

They told us it was about protecting wildlife. They told us it was safe. But what if I told you the U.S. government is dropping live, lab-made Frankenstein viruses from airplanes over American towns — and they didn't ask for your consent?

The U.S. Department of Agriculture's Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service has begun what it's calling a "rabies control program."

Except this isn't a routine vaccine campaign. It's a live-virus operation — a mass aerial distribution of genetically engineered rabies baits known as RABORAL V-RG. Millions of them. Scattered from airplanes and helicopters — across forests, waterways, and population centers including suburban neighborhoods.

No press coverage. No community meetings. No informed consent. And yet millions of Americans are being used as guinea pigs and exposed to a strain of rabies cooked up in a biolab.

They even warn you in fine print — if you touch one, wash your hands. If your dog eats one, it will vomit. But that's where their transparency ends.

Because what they don't tell you — what buried studies quietly reveal — is that this vaccine is not a harmless edible.

It's a chimeric virus, a man-made Frankenstein fusion of human and animal genes — a genetic hybrid capable of replicating and shedding for weeks after ingestion.

A 2019 study in Vaccine confirmed that virus DNA from RABORAL can be found in oral and rectal swabs up to 34 days after exposure. In other words — the animal that eats the bait keeps shedding a live rabies virus for over a month.

So picture this: a raccoon eats one. Then a fox. Then a stray cat. Then your dog. Each now carrying and spreading fragments of a virus designed in a biolab to mimic one of the most lethal pathogens known to humankind.

And here's what makes it chilling — rabies has a 100 percent fatality rate once symptoms appear. There is no cure. Only suffering. The next footage of a woman with rabies is difficult to watch. But, it's the only way to understand the reality of what's being released into our environment.

The CDC has known for over a decade that this live virus vaccine "leaves persons at risk for vaccine exposure and vaccine virus infection."

But instead of halting the aerial spraying, they expanded operations across the eastern states.

So the question becomes: why? Why would a government deliberately blanket its own population with live, genetically modified pathogens?

Because — if you've been paying attention — it fits perfectly with the elite's dual agenda.

Agenda one: Depopulation.

A slow-burn biological rollout disguised as “wildlife management.” Introduce a live rabies vector into the environment, and sooner or later, it spreads, mutates — jumps species — reaches humans. An outbreak no one can stop, no one can trace, and no one can blame.

Agenda two: Extreme compliance.

A terrified population is an obedient population. When people live in fear of infection — fear of each other — they submit to any control measure. Mandatory injections, tracking, digital quarantine systems — all justified “for your safety.”

Two birds. One stone. A slow-acting biological weapon that ensures both population reduction and social submission. Exactly as the elite have been predicting for years.

Coming up, we'll hear from a virologist who's been tracking the spread of this program for months.

She'll explain how the aerial spraying of live, recombinant rabies vaccine dramatically increases the odds of a future outbreak — and how the mutation pathways are already observable in field samples.

She told me off-air: "They're not preventing rabies. They're seeding it."

And if you still think this is just another government safety program, wait until you hear who's really signing the checks.

The skies above us have become laboratories. The air we breathe, the soil beneath our feet — are test sites.

And the question that should haunt you the most... if these are the results we're already seeing — the sickness, the neurological fallout, the unexplained illnesses — then what are they doing in secret?

A virologist who once worked in a government-funded lab developing the oral rabies vaccine calls it what it really is: a Frankenstein experiment, funded by the Gates Foundation, and built from the blueprints of control, not compassion.

If you're researching topics they don't want you to touch, you need to lock down your digital life.

And if you're still using a legacy VPN, cancel your subscription right now — you're under attack.

Most of the world's most popular VPNs have been bought up by Israeli companies with direct ties to Unit 8200, Mossad's version of the NSA on steroids. We're talking about the same elite military intelligence unit behind some of the most invasive spy tech ever created — including Pegasus, the software used to turn politicians and journalists' phones into 24/7 surveillance devices... and Cellebrite, used to extract entire phone histories in minutes.

These are the people you're trusting with the most important details of your life.

But don't take my word for it. Do your own research. Look up Kape Technologies. Look up who they place in senior positions within their newly acquired VPNs.

These aren't just tech bros. These are spooks — trained cyber operatives from Israel's notorious Unit 8200. And they don't just want access to "terrorists" or "criminals." No — they want access to everyone. Remember when Netanyahu declared the internet was Israel's new battleground?

That means you. That means your wife. Your children. Your encrypted messages. Your passwords. Your search history. Your location. Your voice. Your face. Your life.

The fox is in the henhouse, and most people don't even realize their "privacy shield" has been turned into a surveillance window.

That's why VP.net was created in 2025 — a system built from the ground up to be verifiable, transparent, and unstoppable.

Every connection is protected by a mathematically provable cryptographic shield, so no third party — not even VP.net itself — can see or log your data.

It's faster. It's censorship-proof. And it's built for this new era — the one where privacy must be earned, not promised.

Legacy VPNs say "trust us." VP.net says "don't trust us — verify yourself."

Just as blockchain redefined finance, vp.net is rewriting digital privacy. Its groundbreaking trustless architecture runs inside a Secure Enclave, a self-contained environment where even the system administrators can't peek inside. No logs. No trackers.

Most importantly, you don't have to take anyone's word for it — it's mathematically — cryptographically — impossible for them to spy on you.

Go to vp.net/tpv and see for yourself. For just five bucks a month, you can shield your identity, encrypt your activity, and reclaim control of your data.

And here's the best part: it's American-owned. No Mossad backdoors. No kompromat. Not even Unit 8200 can spy on you.

Because there's too much at stake to rely on trust — especially when the systems asking for it have already shown they don't deserve it.

Join the movement at VP.net/tpv — it's just five bucks a month.

Don't trust. Verify.

The quicker he's gone, the better. You can add George Soros and Klaus Schwab to that list.
